

Your Estate Planning, Asset Protection, & Family Business Succession Attorneys

Personal Note

Hi Everyone!

This is Estate Planning & Asset Protection Attorney, Leslie V. Marengo to bring you our newsletter and to THANK YOU for all your REFERRALS.

So it's only the beginning of June and we've already had our first named storm: Tropical Storm Alex. And I must say, it was just quite annoying. This weather is simply not conducive to walking to and from work every day - which has been the recommendation from my doctor to help with the circulation of my injured knee. However, watching the "Only In Dade" videos on social media of people canoeing down Brickell Ave served as fantastic entertainment over the weekend! All joking aside though, I hope you all fared well and remained safe during the storm.

June is typically a month filled with celebrations. Whether you are celebrating Father's Day, a child's graduation, or a wedding, we share your excitement! Summer is (unofficially) here. And after two years of pandemic-related postponements and delays, you might be ready to make up for lost time with an adventure far from home. Yes, despite the rising costs of everything, vacations are back! We are so excited to see our clients and friends resuming their love for travel, adventure, family gatherings, and all the things that got put on hold or tamped way down over the last couple of years. To that end, I actually have some tips to Set Yourself Up to Take a Stress-Free Vacation that I came up with a few years ago. If you find yourself constantly fighting a "tag-of-war" between working and spending time with family... this article is for you! Check it out.

This week we also wrote about Bob Saget's Estate since he is a good example of a famous person who died and left their family with the gift of good Estate Planning - saving them time and money and needless headaches. As always, if you have an idea for an article or blog? Just hit "reply" and let me know!

To your continued health, wealth, & happiness.

-Leslie

What Bob Saget Can Teach Us About Estate Planning

For any late 80s and early 90s kid, "Full House" was essential viewing, and its characters were icons of the television.

Perhaps this is why it struck a chord with so many when Bob Saget, known for his classic role as Danny Tanner in the beloved show, suddenly passed away in his Orlando hotel room on January 9th, 2022. And while we at Trust

Counsel are no strangers to untimely or unexpected celebrity deaths, there was something in particular about Bob Saget's death that left us all shocked-after all, he was still young, and his death seemed to come out of nowhere. Despite all of this, Bob Saget is one celebrity that has somehow avoided the tragic pitfalls of so many others in his industry: in fact, his large estate, valued at around $50 million, has not been the subject of any drama, tragedy, or poor management (crazy, right?).
